SKIN (Group art show)
Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery (LAMAG) presents SKIN, an art exhibition that examines the work of 36 contemporary artists “who are expanding the ongoing dialogue about race and identity, while challenging the very definition of skin color.” The thought-provoking show is designed to break down negative stereotypes while building a better understanding of race in America. See the works of artists including Kara Walker, Nery Gabriel Lemus and Ken Gonzalez Day. There’s an opening reception on Sunday from 2-5 pm. The works will remain on view through April 17.
