

BETA
Cool Art & Stuff

Los Angeles hires artist Alan Nakagawa to help cut deaths from traffic

By Mark Westall

<http://fadmagazine.com/2016/06/10/los-angeles-hires-artist-to-help-cut-deaths-from-traffic/>

Fad Magazine says:

The Los Angeles Department of Transportation has recruited artist Alan Nakagawa to reduce traffic deaths, approaching language in a way to reinforce shared space and communal perceptions of the roads. The artist will “will continue this tradition, with a focus on how we can infuse art into design to create safer streets,” you can read more over at Curbed L.A

BLINK CREATIVE GROUP

Fad Magazine
June 10, 2016