Description: The City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs (DCA) and The Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery (LAMAG) are pleased to present the exhibition, Fiberlicious, at the famed Barnsdall Art Park (4800 Hollywood Boulevard). On view from October 25, 2015 through January 3, 2016 the pioneering presentation examines the work of sixteen contemporary artists, who expand the possibilities of traditional fiber art, while challenging its definition. Barnsdall Art Park Foundation kicks off Fiberlicious with an opening reception on Sunday, October 25, from 6-10 p.m. and invites the public to participate by coming dressed in their best fiberlicious wearable art.
