DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS ANNOUNCES
LOS ANGELES ARTISTS FELLOWSHIP LABORATORY EXHIBITION
FEATURING VISUAL, LITERARY, AND PERFORMING ARTISTS

Visual Arts Exhibition Dates: June 2 – 30, 2012, Plaza de la Raza

Exhibition Opening Reception: June 9, 3 p.m. – 6 p.m., Plaza de la Raza

Los Angeles - The City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs (DCA) is pleased to present the Los Angeles Artists Fellowship Laboratory Exhibition (LAAFL), an experimental public art initiative that will showcase the work of eight visual artists, two performance artists, and one literary artist. The exhibition and performances will be on view at Plaza de la Raza from June 2 through June 30, 2012. The Opening Reception for the exhibition, readings, and performances will be held on Saturday, June 9, from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The Los Angeles Artists Fellowship Laboratory is a new DCA initiative from its Public Art Division. The Laboratory was created as a method for studio artists to create experimental, site-specific public artworks minus the usual constraints of more traditional public art commissions. The Public Art Division is committed to expanding the type of artists who participate in the City's public art programs. This initiative seeks to attract artists whose open-ended studio practice demonstrates a capacity for elevating the standards for public art as well as advancing aesthetic civic purpose. It also serves as a potential artist-training component of DCA's Public Art Division to encourage studio artists to see public art as an attractive and meaningful opportunity for their creative talents.

The first group of artists that inaugurates this public art initiative are: Lynne Berman, Martin Durazo, Heather Flood, Diane Gamboa, Mark Steven Greenfield, Steve Hurd, Maryrose Mendoza, and Rika Ohara in the visual arts. The recipients in the performing arts are: Paul Outlaw and Raphael Xavier. The LAAFL literary artist is Joseph Mattson. These artists have been selected by a panel of experts as mid-career artists reflecting the best of Los Angeles in their respective disciplines. Collectively, their work and backgrounds are a diverse and exciting representation of the multifaceted cultural landscape of Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles Artist Fellowship Laboratory Exhibition is organized by Scott Canty, Curator and Director of Exhibits at DCA's Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery at Barnsdall Park. The project will present Conversations with the Artists and admission to the exhibition, artist talks, and all events is free. Please refer to the detailed schedule that follows for more information.

DCA advances the social and economic impact of the arts and ensures access to diverse and enriching cultural activities through grant making, marketing, public art, community arts programming, arts education, and partnerships with artists and arts and cultural organizations in neighborhoods throughout the City of Los Angeles.

DCA's operating budget and managed portfolio totaled $38.2 million in fiscal year 2010/11. It consisted of: $9.5 million in funds from the Public Works Improvements Arts Program (PWIAP); $8.9 million in City related and indirect cost allocations; $8.7 million from the Private Arts Development Fee Program (ADF); $7.7 million in Transient Occupancy Tax funds; and over $3.4 million in private and public funds raised from foundation, corporate, government, and individual donors.

DCA significantly supports artists and cultural projects through its Public Art Division by administering a portfolio totaling $18.2 million in PWIAP and ADF funds in FY10/11. DCA's Marketing and Development Division raised over $16.9 million since FY07/08 to re-grant to LA-based artists and arts and cultural organizations for special grant initiatives and to support DCA's special programming and facilities. DCA also grants approximately $2.2 million annually to over 280 artists and nonprofit arts and cultural organizations through its long-established Grants Administration Division.

DCA provides arts and cultural programming through its Community Arts Division, managing numerous neighborhood arts and cultural centers, theaters, historic sites, and educational initiatives. DCA's Marketing and Development Division also markets the City's arts and cultural events through development and collaboration with strategic partners, design and production of creative catalogs, publications, and promotional materials, and management of the culturela.org website visited by over 3 million people annually.
