5:30-8:30 p.m

Barnsdall Park

4800 Hollywood Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90027

Event added by Emma H.

All installations and related programming, including 75 events, are free and open to all. As part of this initiative, Futuro of New Shores takes place at Barnsdall Park (4800 Hollywood Blvd) on November 3 from 5.30 – 8.30 pm. Take part in this late-summer party that is a multisensory meal and performance and glimpse of the future, an evening created and presented by CURRENT artist team Julio César Morales & Max La Rivière-Hedrick. This night considers an unknown future, given the drastic changes in our global environment. Related nights recognize immigrant cultures of East Hollywood. Bring your friends, children, and beverages; food is provided. Capacity is limited; RSVP preferred, space given on a first-come, first-served basis.
